Betha is also found in R&W as a feminine given name under the header Bethel, as a possible diminutive of Beth, Betha de Bureswelles 1176-9 pg 41 [FIXME]

Blackhart can be constructed based on inn signs that use the pattern [color] + [animal], as found in "English Sign Names" by Mari ingen Briain meic Donnchada (<http://medievalscotland.org/kmo/inn/>). The examples in this article include single word names, such as Grayhorse and Whytehorse.

from prior submission Jean Blackhart Siren comments

Juliana de Luna In my inn sign dictionary, there is an inn called Whyte Heart (first appearing in a 1570 lease) (Lillywhite, Bryant, London Signs, Allen & Unwin, London, 1972). Most sources think it represents Hart. But it's there. So that should allow us to partially restore it to Blackheart.

Valko Chilko - New Name Change From Holding Name

OSCAR NOTE: 'Old Item' should contain the former primary name. The form that is there is not a registered name.

Old Item: Valko of Calafia, to be released.

Submitter picked the exact name Laurel said he could not register (could not check with lack of wifi on site) Submitter contacted to choose an alternate surname, no response

Val'ko is a masculine Russian given name found in "Paul Goldschmidt's Dictionary of Period Russian Names" (<http://heraldry.sca.org/names/paul/va.html>) dated to 1253.

Valko Chilikov. Name.

This name must be returned because no documentation was provided (and none was found in commentary) for the byname Chilikov.

The Letter of Intent suggested that the Polish given name Chilko, dated to 1558 and 1560 in Lillia de Vaux, "A Preliminary Survey of Names from the Historical Dictionary of Personal Names in Białystok" (2011 KWHSS Proceedings), might be usable as an unmarked patronym. However, under PN2C2b, Polish can be combined with Russian only if there are less than 300 years between the elements. The given name is dated to 1253, more than 300 years earlier than the first instance of Chilko. We cannot, therefore, change this name to Valko Chilko for registration.

Order of the Arcus

Azure, a bow within a bordure embattled argent

Language (Latin) most important.

Meaning (Order of the Bow) most important.

This order name follows the period pattern of "Order of the [Heraldic Charge]" found in "Medieval Secular Order Names" by Juliana de Luna.

Arcus is the Latin word for "bow", found in Charlton T. Lewis' "An Elementary Latin Dictionary"

(<http://www.perseus.tufts.edu/hopper/text?doc=Perseus%3Atext%3A1999.04.0060%3Aentry%3Darcus>). By precedent, Latin nouns should be in the nominative case (which is this is) when the order name uses "of the" [Ayreton, Barony of. Order name Order of the Scorpius of Ayreton, November 2012, A-Middle].

A bow is period heraldic charge, found in the canting arms of Bowes, c. 1395

(<http://mistholme.com/dictionary/bow/>).

This order name conflicts with the household name Domus Arcuum, registered to Dunkr Ormstunga (Nov 2014, Artemisia). Dunkr has graciously granted permission to conflict.
